

A SUNLIT CELEBRATION ABOVE THE SEA AT CAESAR AUGUSTUS, CAPRI

Photographed by Sella Photography

There's something magnetic about Capri — the golden light, the scent of citrus, the effortless sense of luxury that hangs in the air. For Leila and Nik, that feeling became the backdrop to their destination wedding at Caesar Augustus, an iconic clifftop hotel where every view seems painted for a celebration.

"Leila and Nik, a lovely couple from the USA, celebrated their wedding in beautiful Capri surrounded by their closest friends and family," shares Sella Photography, whose imagery captures both the intimacy and the vibrancy of the day. The soft hues of the Amalfi coastline met bright pink bridesmaid dresses and crisp white florals, creating a palette that felt both joyful and sophisticated.

The ceremony took place on the hotel's terrace, overlooking the deep blue expanse of the Tyrrhenian Sea — a setting that speaks for itself. The bride's gown, an off-the-shoulder lace design with floral appliqué, moved softly in the coastal breeze, while her bridesmaids added a burst of colour that perfectly echoed the warmth of the Italian sun.

For couples dreaming of a wedding in Capri, Caesar Augustus offers a setting that feels suspended between sky and sea — where architecture, nature, and history align effortlessly. It's one of the many incredible wedding venues in Italy that balance old-world charm with cinematic romance, proving that destination weddings don't need extravagance — just the right place, the right people, and light that feels like forever.

WEDDING TEAM

Dinner unfolded poolside, where yellow-striped awnings framed tables set with hand-painted Italian ceramics and delicate pink floral arrangements. Guests lingered over a menu of fresh seafood and lemon-infused desserts, a true taste of the island. As the sun melted into the horizon, the atmosphere shifted into one of relaxed celebration — elegant yet unforced, the kind of evening Capri is made for.
